Tue Byansville Journal states that railroad connection with Western Kentucky, in the direction of Jackson, Tenn., will soon be realized. The Ohio Valley railroad is making gratifying and astonishing progress. We learn from Chief Engineer C. C. Genung, who has just returned from the line, that it is located to DeKoven; that nearly all the grading to Morganfield is completed, and will be done by January 1, 1886; that three barge loads of steel NASHVILLE, TENN, December 21.—Unrails and fastenings reached Henderson der decree in the Bank of Tennesses case, 1, 1886; that three barge loads of steel last Friday, and that the laying of rails Clerk and Master Wren to-day filed a relast Friday, and that the laying of range port with Gov. Bate showing that all par-will be commenced as soon as they are ties entitled to pro rate distribution of unloaded. Thus it will be seen that the the assets, which aggregated 56000, have hopes of the promoters and friends of the drawn their pro rates, except those repreroad will soon reach fruition.
